*1956 Report.

Charges, Preaching Places and "To Be Supplied." At unification in 1940 Methodism had 42,260 preaching places. Seventeen years later Methodism has 39,359 organized churches. Methodism's charges have increased during the same time from 21,247 to 24,041. In 1940 there were 17,629 effective ministers, 1,222 on trial. In 1957 there were 17,574 effective with 3,058 on trial. The number of accepted supply pastors has increased from about 3,000 to 6,716. In 1941, the first year a complete total is reported, there were 16,498 episcopal appointments and 4,729 charges supplied or to be supplied compared with our present corresponding totals of 15,787 and 8,294 respectively.

A recent study of eleven representative conferences showed that there were 97 charges left to be supplied when the appointments were read at conference time. The follow-up, nine months later, revealed that 40 of those charges had been filled by approved supply pastors, 38 by conference members, 4 were consolidated, 12 still had no pastor and for three, no report could be found.

*1956 Report.
†Preaching Places.

District Superintendents' Support. The "average" salary of ministers should take into account the sums paid for the District Superintendents' Fund. In 1956, of the 496 districts within white jurisdictions, 463 districts paid their superintendents for salary, house and expense funds, a total of $4,250,000 or an average of $9,176. In recent years an increased number of district-owned parsonages have been purchased, many of which are not included in obtaining the average salary. The highest average sum for the support of the district superintendent, $10,683, was paid by the South Central jurisdiction while the lowest average, $7,535, was paid by the Northeastern jurisdiction. The Central jurisdiction is not included in this calculation.

District Superintendents' Tenure of Office. Certain changes in the superintendency naturally take place each year. The number of districts during the last quadrennium varied from 567 to 573, and the change in superintendency was about 20% each year. The following table reveals the number of changes taking place each year of the quadrennium together with the number of years served by those leaving the superintendency. The total summary shows that for the four-year period 216 served the full six-year term, while 195 served for an abbreviated time from one to five years.

Formed by merger of Colorado and Wyoming State Conferences.

- Sociologist W. F. Ogburn shows in "American Journal of Sociology" that the standard of living has doubled since 1895. We are now able to buy over twice as much as then, because family yearly income has risen "in terms of the same purchasing power" from $1,728 to $3,902. So, we are twice as well off and have to work only about half as much as in the "good old days."

- In 1900 only 64% of our population got married. More than 80% now get married at some time in their lives. With college educated parents the average per family is now almost three children.

- The Federal Council of Churches presents the following information:
  "If I Marry a Roman Catholic"
    Where both parents are Protestant—6.8% break-up.
    Where both parents are Roman Catholic—6.4% break-up.
    Mixed marriages—15.2% break-up.

- It is said that highway construction of all kinds in the 13 years' period 1957-1969 will require 49 million tons of steel, 1,399 million barrels of cement, 128 million tons of bituminous material, and 9,170 million tons of aggregate, according to the bureau of public roads. At the peak of the program 442,000 men will be employed directly on highway construction jobs.

Ministerial Support as Related to Charges: The table below gives certain figures for the 10 areas paying the largest "average" ministerial support, and the 10 areas paying the least, in the 32 white areas.

Given also is the number of pastoral charges, the number of those charges filled by episcopal appointments and the number supplied or left to be filled. The per cent of the total of those applied or to be filled is also given.

It is noteworthy that the ten areas with lowest average salary constitute the group having the largest per cent of supplied or to be supplied. This would mean that in many cases a portion of the year passes either without ministerial leadership, with a part-time leadership, or with inadequately trained leadership. This reduces the average support for the whole Church.

Ministerial Support: The Methodist Church has become salary conscious. The impression that ministerial salaries are very low has tended to discourage some young men from entering the ministry. Such young men, desiring a healthy mixture of spiritual and financial responsibility, have turned into other professional fields having higher financially remunerative possibilities.

The Statistical Office has made a study of salaries of the 499 men who joined a Conference in Full Connection ten years ago. Three hundred fifty-nine (359) of these men were appointed in 1945 to pastorates. In 1946 their average cash salary was $1,769, excluding house rent, travel expense, perquisites, discounts and so forth. In 1956, 281 of the 359 were still in the pastorate. Their average cash salary in ten years, including travel expense, had increased to $4,517 or 155.6%. Only a few professions have done more for their young men.

Reliable cash salary figures for the entire Methodist Church are unattainable. Some well-intentioned reporters of Church statistics have divided the total cash salary paid by the total number of charges. In 1956 some 2,002 charges paid less than $1,000.00 each. Half of this number paid less than $100.00. Obviously, these were either missionary charges or very small churches having supply pastors, students, or retired ministers. In addition, some 800 charges failed to report the salaries paid. Also, there are 300 federated churches in which the money reported to the Methodist Conference comes only from the Methodist membership of the Church. Several conferences still neglect to report separately the amount paid pastor and associate pastor(s). Hence another reason for the unreliability of the "Paid Pastor" total.

NOTE ON MEMBERSHIP TOTALS:—Certain inconsistencies appear in Membership totals as this year's figures are compared with those presented previously in the same category. The word "restored" was taken from the line headed "Received by Transfer from Other Methodist Churches and Restored," and placed in line now reading "Received on Profession of Faith and Restored." Hence much of the apparent increase in the one category is due to the decrease in the other.

Further, a similar condition appears in subsequent totals where, by General Conference action, a new line was authorized reading, "Removed by Quarterly Conference Action." Here the word "discontinued" was taken from line headed "Removed by Transfer to Other Methodist Churches and Discontined." This action also accounts for the large total now appearing in the new line, and the considerable decrease in the former category of transfers.

STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the four quadrennia since, and for 1957. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those Conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

Decision No. 131

Re: Whether a Minister on Missionary Service Shall Be Counted on the Mission Field or at His Annual Conference for Representation at the General Conference

DIGEST OF DECISION

A missionary minister serving on the field shall be counted in the Annual Conference of which he is a member for General Conference representation.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The General Conference of 1956 received and adopted report No. 26 of the Committee of Conferences (see page 552 of the 1956 Daily Christian Advocate) stating that "Missionary ministers who so desire may maintain membership without annuity claim in the Annual Conference from which they are sent, while at the same time exercising active relationships to the Annual Conference on the field during the periods they are in missionary service."

Reference was made to this provision in a discussion on the floor of the General Conference relating to the present ratio of representation and to the possibility of more delegates being elected to the next General Conference than the constitutional maximum of 800. The question of how "active relationships" is to be construed gave rise to the question "whether a minister on missionary service shall be counted on the mission field or at his Annual Conference for representation at the General Conference." In the absence of a ruling from the chair, it was moved that this question be referred to the Judicial Council for decision. (See 1956 Daily Christian Advocate, page 616.) (While, later in the session, the General Conference reconsidered its action adopting Report No. 26 of the Committee on Conferences and referred that Report to the Study Commission On Methodism Overseas (Daily Christian Advocate, pages 620-621), its action referring this question to the Judicial Council was not reconsidered.)

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to hear and determine questions submitted to it by the General Conference for declaratory decisions under subdivision 5, Article II of Division IV of the Constitution, Par. 43 of the 1952 Discipline. (See Decision No. 88 of the Judicial Council.)

If the reconsideration and referral of Report No. 26 of the Committee on Conferences had made the question referred to the Judicial Council a moot and hypothetical question, the Council should refuse jurisdiction. It stands, however, as a valid question. While it was prompted by one of the provisions in the proposed legislation of said Report No. 26, it came out of the discussion of the larger question of General Conference representation and where a minister on missionary service should be counted for such representation. It is not a hypothetical question but one constantly involved in the working out of the relationships of ministers who serve in areas other than those represented by their own Annual Conferences. The question is properly before the Judicial Council. We, therefore, assume jurisdiction.

Analysis

Par. 21 of the 1952 Discipline reads in part as follows:

> "The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. . . ."

The ratio of representation of an Annual Conference in the General Conference is specifically defined in Par. 501 of the 1952 Discipline as follows:

> "The General Conference shall be composed of one ministerial member for every seventy ministerial members of each Annual Conference and one additional member for a majority fraction thereof and an equal number of lay members. . . ."

Every minister in the traveling ministry of The Methodist Church must hold membership in one Annual Conference and one only. It is therefore clear that he may be counted for General Conference representation only in the Annual Conference of which he is a member, otherwise conditions would obtain by which an Annual Conference might violate the ratio of representation for General Conference as determined by the General Conference.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a minister on missionary service shall be counted at the Annual Conference of which he is a member for representation at the General Conference.

Decision No. 132

Re: May a Provisional Annual Conference Vote on the Constitutional Amendments Handed Down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference?

DIGEST OF DECISION

A Provisional Annual Conference may not vote on the constitutional amendments handed down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On May 7, 1956, the Council of Bishops voted to request from the Judicial Council a declaratory decision as to whether or not a Provisional Annual Conference may vote on the constitutional amendments handed down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference. This action was communicated to the Judicial Council by a letter of date, May 9, 1956, addressed to the Judicial Council by the Council of Bishops.

Jurisdiction

Under paragraph 914, sub-section (1) of the 1952 Discipline, the request of the Council of Bishops for a declaratory decision is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

Paragraph 10, sub-paragraphs 1 and 2, Section III, Division Two, of the Constitution of The Methodist Church, 1952 Discipline, provides as follows:

"Sec. III. Amendments

> "10. 1. Amendments to the Constitution may originate in either the General Conference or an Annual Conference.
> "2. Amendments to the Constitution shall be made upon a two-thirds majority of the General Conference present and voting and a two-thirds majority of all the members of the several Annual Conferences present and voting, except in the case of the first Restrictive Rule, which shall require a three-fourths majority of all the members of the Annual Conferences present and voting. The vote, after being completed, shall be canvassed by the Council of Bishops, and the amendment voted upon shall become effective upon their announcement of its having received the required majority."

Paragraph 4, sub-paragraph 4, Division Two, of the Constitution, 1952 Discipline provides:

> "There shall be Annual Conferences as the fundamental bodies in the Church with such powers, duties and privileges as are hereinafter set forth."

Paragraph 22, Article II, Section VII, Division Two of the Constitution, 1952 Discipline, provides:

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body in the Church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments. . . ."

The only references made to Provisional Annual Conferences in the Constitution of The Methodist Church are the following:

By an amendment effective 1956, paragraph 7 of the 1952 Discipline, Article III, Section I, Division Two, was amended and provides that the General Conference shall fix the ratio of representation in the General, Jurisdictional and Central Conferences from Provisional Annual Conferences as well as from Annual Conferences upon the same basis.

Paragraph 13 of the 1952 Discipline, Article III, Section IV, Division Two, of the Constitution, provides that the General Conference shall fix the basis of representation in the Jurisdictional Conferences provided that the Jurisdictional Conference shall be composed of an equal number of ministerial and lay delegates, the ministerial to be elected by the ministerial members of the Annual Conferences and the Provisional Annual Conferences and the lay delegates by the lay members.

Paragraph 17 of the 1952 Discipline, Article II, Section V, Division Two provides that:

> "The Central Conferences shall be composed of as many delegates as shall be determined by a basis established by the General Conference. The delegates shall be ministerial and lay in equal numbers, the ministerial delegates to be elected by the ministerial members and lay delegates to be elected by the lay members of the Annual Conferences or the Provisional Annual Conferences."

By an amendment effective 1956, paragraph 24 of the 1952 Discipline, Article IV, Section VII, Division Two, provides that the ministerial delegates to the General Conference and to the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences shall be elected by the ministerial members of the Annual Conference or the Provisional Conference (the amendment at this point omits the word "Annual") provided such delegates have been traveling preachers in the constituent churches forming the union or in The Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election and are in full connection with the Annual Conference or the Provisional Annual Conference electing them when elected and at the time of the holding of the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences.

It will be noted that the foregoing references to Provisional Annual Conferences relate to the manner in which such Provisional Annual Conferences may elect, send delegates to and be represented in the General, Jurisdictional and Central Conferences and that in none of these references is there any provision by which the right to vote on all constitutional amendments reserved to the Annual Conference is granted to the Provisional Annual Conference.

A further reference to Provisional Annual Conferences is found in paragraph 8 of the 1952 Discipline, subdivision 3 of the Article IV, Section I, Division Two of the Constitution, which provides that the General Conference shall have full legislative power over all matters distinctively connectional and in the exercise of said powers shall have authority "to define and fix the powers and duties of Annual Conferences, Mission Conferences and Missions" since Mission Conferences referred to therein are called Provisional Annual Conferences in the body of the Discipline. Under this power paragraph 607 of the 1952 Discipline provides that "A Provisional Annual Conference is authorized to exercise the powers of an Annual Conference subject to the approval of the presiding Bishop." The authority given the General Conference by this provision of the Constitution does not grant the General Conference the right to fix powers of Provisional Annual Conferences which are in contravention of other express provisions of the Constitution and accordingly Provisional Annual Conferences cannot, under the provisions of paragraph 607, exercise the right to vote on constitutional amendments, which right is specifically reserved to the Annual Conference by the Constitution.

It is the duty of judicial bodies in determining rights under constitutions to determine the intention of the makers or framers of the Constitution. If there are apparent conflicts, it is the duty of judicial bodies to harmonize them if this can be reasonably done without distorting the meaning of any provision so as to give effect to every portion of the instrument under consideration. A judicial body may not override a plain constitutional provision however objectionable it may seem to the parties interested. Where the language is plain and unambiguous, no room is left for construction.

It is clear from the Constitution that there is a difference between an Annual Conference and a Provisional Annual Conference. The provisions of the Consitution relating to the Annual Conference, the manner in which amendments to the Constitution may be made and the distinct provision that the Annual Conference shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments are clear and unambiguous.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a Provisional Annual Conference may not vote on the constitutional amendments handed down to the Annual Conferences by the 1956 General Conference.

Decision No. 133

Re: The Effective Date of Retirement in the Case of Voluntary Retirement of Ministers

DIGEST OF CASE

The effective date of the retirement of a minister who voluntarily retires is the date of the adjournment of the Annual Conference which approved his retirement.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

At the 1956 session of the Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church at Hamline University, St. Paul, Minnesota, June 6 to 10, 1956, Paragraph 6 of the Standing Order No. 10 of the Conference was adopted as follows:

> "When recommending the voluntary retirement of any minister to the Annual Conference, the Committee on Conference Relations should indicate after consultation with the minister concerned the effective date of retirement, such as June 30, or December 31. (This is subject to the declaratory decision of the Judicial Council.)"

Pursuant to the adoption of the foregoing order, the secretary of the Minnesota Annual Conference of The Methodist Church transmitted to the Judicial Council a request for a declaratory decision on whether or not the action of the Minnesota Annual Conference quoted above is in keeping with the law of the Church.

Jurisdiction

This question here presented comes before the Judicial Council in keeping with the provisions of Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline and we, therefore, assume jurisdiction.

Analysis

The Annual Conference is the basic body of The Methodist Church (The Constitution of The Methodist Church, Division Two, Section VII, Article II, Paragraph 22 of the 1952 Discipline) and as such there is reserved to it "all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members."

A Methodist minister in full connection is a member of an Annual Conference. At every session of his Annual Conference the relationship of a minister to that Annual Conference is fixed for the ensuing year.

It will be noted that it has become the policy of The Methodist Church, based upon long standing custom, if not by positive legislation of the Church, that the establishment of the relationships of the ministers of the Conference is fixed on an annual basis. The very term "Annual" Conference indicates that the work of the Church and of the ministers proceeds upon an annual basis.

Furthermore, as required by Paragraph 647 of the 1952 Discipline, the Committee on Conference Relations every year examines into the reports to the Annual Conference "regarding the standing of all ministers in the Conference" and upon this report when acted upon, the Conference fixes and establishes the relationships of its ministerial members for the ensuing year.

In cases where a minister seeks voluntary retirement, the Committee on Conference Relations receives his request, makes its report to the Conference and when Question No. 38 is called, as provided for in Paragraph 651 of the 1952 Discipline, the Conference acts upon such request and if the minister's request for retirement is acted upon favorably, it is so noted and the relationship of the minister for the ensuing year is thus determined. (See Paragraphs 367, 368, 369 and 370 of the 1952 Discipline.)

The Conference year of an Annual Conference ends upon the adjournment of the Annual Conference and the new year of that Conference begins immediately following adjournment. It should be noted that the Conference has no further opportunity to inquire into the character and Conference relations of its ministerial members until the next session of the Annual Conference is held and therefore has no opportunity to change the relationship of the individual ministers to the Conference until the next session of the Annual Conference.

Therefore the relationship of every minister to his Annual Conference is fixed and determined by the annual session of said Conference and the effective date of his relationship to the Annual Conference for the ensuing year is the date of the adjournment of his Conference.

Decision

The effective date of the retirement of a minister who seeks voluntary retirement from active service in his Annual Conference is the date of the adjournment of that session of his Annual Conference at which his request for retirement is approved and the Annual Conference can fix no other date.

It necessarily follows that the action taken by the 1956 session of the Minnesota Annual Conference and referred to above is not in keeping with the law of The Methodist Church.

Decision No. 134

Re: Interpretation of Amendment to Paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline Providing a Ritual for Admission on Trial

DIGEST OF DECISION

The words "formal vote of the Conference" as used in Paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline, and in the amendment thereto made by the General Conference of 1956 were intended to mean the formal vote of the ministers of the Conference entitled to vote under the Constitution on the question before the Conference.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The President of the Judicial Council on June 20, 1956, received the following copy of a resolution from Rev. Mr. John V. Leach:

> "WHEREAS, paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church was amended by the 1956 General Conference to include a ritual for 'Admission on Trial,' and
> "WHEREAS, the said ritual calls for a vote of the entire membership of the Annual Conference on the acceptability of candidates for admission on trial, and
> "WHEREAS, The Constitution of The Methodist Church, paragraph 22, Article II, specifically states that 'the lay members (of the Annual Conference) may not vote on matters of ordination, character and conference relations of ministers,'

Jurisdiction

Analysis

While the request of the South Dakota Annual Conference asks for a ruling as to whether or not the ritual for "Admission On Trial" as approved by the General Conference of 1956 contravenes the Constitution of The Methodist Church, the import of the query indicates that the concern is in the interpretation of the phrase "after this the formal vote of the Conference on admitting the candidates to membership on trial shall be taken." (See 1956 Daily Christian Advocate, page 437.)

Attention is called to the fact that in the petition the petitioner states "the said ritual calls for a vote of the entire membership of the Annual Conference." This statement is in error.

The language of the report adopted by the General Conference, as indicated above, reveals that the committee reporting and the General Conference adopting this ritual employed the same language used in paragraph 1924 of the 1952 Discipline relating to the ritual "for the admission of candidates to full membership in an Annual Conference."

It is the opinion of this Judicial Council, and we so hold, that there is no constitutional question involved in the question submitted to us as assumed by the petitioner; rather, it is our opinion that the only question presented by the petitioner involves an interpretation of the words "formal vote of the Conference." Therefore, we are of the opinion, and so hold, that the only thing necessary to a determination of this matter is to give a judicial interpretation of the intended meaning of the words quoted above. In this connection we point out that in various other places in the Discipline similar words are used. (See Paragraphs 367, 369, 377 of the 1952 Discipline.)

It is apparent, when the paragraphs of the Discipline referred to in this petition and the other paragraphs referred to by numbers above are read in connection with the constitutional provisions, that it was the intention of the General Conference in using such words to refer to that vote which could constitutionally be taken in such instances, namely, the vote of the ministerial members only of the Annual Conference.

Dissenting Opinion

Respectfully I must disagree with the majority of my brethren as to the Judicial Council's jurisdiction to determine the query submitted to us by the South Dakota Annual Conference. The majority say the "import of the query" is not the constitutionality of the General Conference action. That seems to me to fly in the face of the plain language of the South Dakota Annual Conference resolution, where, after referring to Paragraph 22, Article II of the Constitution of The Methodist Church we are requested "to rule on the query whether the said amendment is in contravention of the Constitution of The Methodist Church." I do not believe that we should require extreme precision of expression for presentation of questions to us, but when one is clearly expressed I do not believe that we should say it is other than it says it is. Hence, the resolution to me raises a constitutional question. The first point for decision, then, is our jurisdiction.

Our only express right to rule on the constitutionality of acts of the General Conference is found in Division Four, Paragraph 43, Article II, of the Constitution and Paragraph 904.1 of the Discipline enacted pursuant thereto. The relevant language in each is:

> "* * * determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of a majority of the Council of Bishops, or one-fifth of the members of the General Conference * * *"

We unanimously held in Decision Number 37 that we had no jurisdiction to pass on the constitutionality of a General Conference Act at the initiative of an Annual Conference under the Constitutional provision quoted above or under Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline. I am aware that the General Conference in 1952 amended that Paragraph 914 by listing the bodies that could seek a "declaratory decision" and that an Annual Conference is one of the bodies listed. Our former Decision was based squarely on "the Constitution, Paragraph 43, Article II, Section 1," and only in a passing manner did it mention there was no authority in the then Paragraph 914 for such appeals from the Annual Conference. Too, no amendment was made as to the types of questions on which such decisions could be sought. Those were in the 1944 and the 1952 Discipline:

> "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline seem to be of doubtful meaning, or application, the Judicial Council,  shall have jurisdiction to make a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline ***"

For these reasons, our Decision Number 37 is as valid now as when handed down and should be followed.

Apart from our previous decision its conclusion seems to me to be the only proper one now. Paragraph 915 nowhere uses the words "constitutionality" where as Paragraph 904 and 905 do with reference to our having such jurisdiction. The key jurisdictional granting language of Paragraph 914 is "subject to more than one interpretation" and "of doubtful meaning or application," and that rather clearly seems to me to only contemplate decisions on the meaning of duplications or ambiguous legislation.

In arriving at a proper construction of Paragraph 914 we must keep before us that the Paragraph itself requires the Judicial Council to "* * * determine from the facts in connection with each such petition whether or not it has jurisdiction to hear and determine the same." That caveat certainly indicates that we are to examine carefully the jurisdictional aspect of any petition seeking a declaratory decision and seems to negate our implying jurisdiction.

In addition, constitutional questions should not be lightly raised or lightly decided because of their far-reaching effect and importance. Judicial bodies generally do not decide them unless absolutely necessary, and do not, and should not, where their jurisdiction to do so is created by legislation, imply that power. I cannot believe the 1952 General Conference intended us to entertain constitutional questions on the petition of any of the numerous bodies listed in Paragraph 914, particularly when it did not expressly say so. As a practical matter, if we did accept such petitions from the first seven groups enumerated in Paragraph 914, let alone each Annual Conference, either this Council's personnel would have to be greatly expanded or its decisions greatly delayed.

In writing this I realize the Annual Conference is "the basic body in the church" and as such has many rights. It does not, though, have rights that by the Constitution are delegated to the General Conference. By Division Two, Section I, Article IV 7 of the Constitution the General Conference has the power "To provide a judicial System and a method of judicial procedure for the church * * *" It follows that in construing the disciplinary provisions here involved an Annual Conference has the same status as any other body in the church listed.

For the reasons above I am of the opinion the Judicial Council does not have the jurisdiction to determine the constitutionality of an action of the General Conference at the request of an Annual Conference.

Donald A. Odell and A. Wesley Pugh concur in this Dissenting Opinion.

Decision No. 135

Re: The Acceptance by a Board of Trustees of an Annual Conference or Other Group or Organization Within an Annual Conference of Title to Real Estate Which Does not Contain the Trust Clause as Contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline

DIGEST OF DECISION

Annual Conference Boards of Trustees or other Annual Conference organizations may legally receive title to real estate which does not contain the "trust cluase" as contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The following communication was received by the Secretary of the Judicial Council:

> "Enclosed you will find motion coming from our Louisville Annual Conference dated June 3-6 pertaining to some property that had been received without the Trust Clause.

RESOLUTION OF THE LOUISVILLE CONFERENCE

> "Whereas there have been many questions raised, both publicly and privately, as to the validity of the title to the Methodist House near Franklin, Kentucky, in the Louisville Conference, and whereas no satisfactory answer has yet been given,
> "THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:
> "That the Louisville Annual Conference in session at Bowling Green, Kentucky, June 3-6, 1956, request the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church to give a declaratory judgment or decision as to whether a Board of Trustees > or any other group or organization in an Annual Conference can legally accept title to any property which does not contain the Trust Clause as contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church."

Further information obtained from the Secretary of the Louisville Annual Conference indicates that title to the above mentioned property is held by the Board of Trustees of The Methodist House, a corporation of the Louisville Annual Conference.

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline which grants an Annual Conference the right to request a declaratory decision on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein, this request is properly before the Judicial Council.

Analysis

The question before the Judicial Council is whether a Board of Trustees or any other group or organization in an Annual Conference (other than the trustees of a local church) can legally accept title to property which does not contain the trust clause as contained in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church. This inquiry arises out of concern for the manner in which title to certain property has been taken by the Trustees of The Methodist House, a corporation related to the Louisville Annual Conference. The question, therefore, does not involve a local church Board of Trustees. Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline is a part of a general division of the Discipline entitled "The Local Church." Clearly this and all other provisions of this part of the Discipline are for the guidance of Trustees, Official Boards and Quarterly Conferences within the local church. Paragraph 174, therefore, could have no binding effect upon the acts of an Annual Conference Board of Trustees or other groups or organizations within the Annual Conference.

Paragraph 709 of the 1952 Discipline, sub-section 2, relating to the powers of an Annual Conference Board of Trustees, states:

> "The said corporation shall receive, collect, and hold in trust for the benefit of the Annual Conference any and all donations, bequests, and devises of any kind or character, real or personal, that may be given, devised, bequeathed, or conveyed to the said board or to the Annual Conference as such for any benevelent, charitable, or religious purpose, and shall administer the same and the income therefrom in accordance with the directions of the donor, trustor, or testator, . . . under the direction of the Annual Conference. . . ."

Since no reference is here made to the "trust clause" as set forth in Paragraph 174, further confirmation is given to the view that the said Paragraph 174 and the trust clause included therein refer solely to the acquisition of real property by the local church.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a Board of Trustees of an Annual Conference or any other group or organization related to an Annual Conference may legally accept title to real estate which does not contain the "Trust Clause" as set forth in Paragraph 174 of the 1952 Discipline.

Decision No. 136

Re: Privilege of Voting for Approved Supply Elders

DIGEST OF DECISION

An Annual Conference may not extend voting privileges to full-time Approved Supply Pastors who are ordained Elders and who have served charges during the past year.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On September 4, 1956, the Judicial Council received the following communication from Robert H. Courtney, Secretary of the North-East Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church:

> "To the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church:
> "The following is certified to be a true copy of the Journal of the North-East Ohio Conference of The Methodist Church:

> "Wednesday, June 20, 1956, the North-East Ohio Annual Conference meeting in Lakeside, Ohio, approved the following recommendation on motion of H. B. Williams, Secy. of the Cabinet:
> > "We recommend that under the General Conference legislation empowering an Annual Conference to permit full time Approved Supply Elders in charge of a church or churches to vote on all matters not affecting orders and Conference membership, we extend that privilege to the men covered by that legislation at this session of the North-East Ohio Annual Conference.'
> (Approved by a standing vote, aye 399, no 28)
> "Saturday, June 23, 1956, the North-East Ohio Annual Conference of The Methodist Church meeting at Lakeside, Ohio—

> > "Judicial Statement—on motion of Clarence H. LaRue, the North-East Ohio Conference requested a Declaratory Statement from the Judicial Council of The Methodist Church relative to the voting privilege for full time Approved Supply Elders in charge of a church or churches.'
> "Respectfully submitted,
> (signed) Robert H. Courtney
> Robert H. Courtney, Secretary
> The North-East Ohio Annual Conference
> The Methodist Church"

Jurisdiction

Under Paragraph 914 (8) of the 1952 Discipline, the Judicial Council has jurisdiction to render a declaratory decision on the question thus submitted to it by the North-East Ohio Annual Conference.

Analysis

On May 7, 1956, Calendar No. 133, Report No. 12, Committee on Ministry, Subject: Voting Privileges for Supply Men, was duly presented to and adopted by the General Conference of The Methodist Church in session at Minneapolis, Minnesota, as follows:

> "An Annual Conference, may, by a three-fourths vote, at the opening of the annual session, grant to full-time approved supply pastors who are ordained elders and who have served charges during the past year, the privilege of voting at that session on all matters before the Conference, except those dealing with ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers, and the election of lay and ministerial delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences."

Acting under the provisions of this legislation the North-East Ohio Annual Conference as above stated did on June 20, 1956, pass the above stated motion to permit full-time Approved Supply Elders in charge of a church or churches to vote on all matters not affecting orders and conference membership.

Already the law of the Church under Paragraph 317 of the 1952 Discipline provides that "An approved supply pastor who is in charge of a pastoral appointment shall attend the sessions of the Annual Conference and shall have the privilege of speaking on any question, but without vote."

Hence the only question herein involved concerns the right to vote. The right to vote is the ultimate privilege in any organization and in effect bestows membership.

The Constitution of The Methodist Church (Section VII, Article I, Division Two of the Constitution, Paragraph 21 of the 1952 Discipline) reads as follows:

> "The Annual Conference shall be composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, together with a lay member elected by each pastoral charge. The lay members shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and shall have been for the four years next preceding their election members of one of the constituent churches forming this union, or of The Methodist Church."

Article II of said Section VII of the Constitution, Paragraph 22 of the 1952 Discipline, reads as follows:

> "The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church, and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all constitutional amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and the Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of its ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers, and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution, with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matters of ordination, character, and conference relations of ministers. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

Specified herein as reserved to the Annual Conference is, among other items, the right to vote on all constitutional amendments and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution.

To grant an annual right to vote to certain approved supply pastors would in effect extend to them temporary membership in the Annual Conference, making an Annual Conference membership of traveling preachers in full connection, lay members and certain approved supply pastors.

This Judicial Council has already stated under Decision No. 129:

> "It is hardly conceivable that an Annual Conference could grant to a non-member the right to vote on these important matters. There is no provision in the Constitution or in the law of the Church for an associate member of an Annual Conference."

Furthermore, said Decision No. 129 states:

> "Only members of the Annual Conference can vote on the matters enumerated in the Constitution. By implication, it would be unconstitutional for an Annual Conference to grant the right to vote on any matter to a person not a member of the Annual Conference."

Concurring Opinion

My colleagues have granted me the privilege of this concurring opinion which has as its purpose the setting forth of some of the arguments upon which the majority bases its decision to take jurisdiction.

Paragraph 43 of the Discipline, Division Four, Article II of the Constitution, defines the authority of the Judicial Council. Section 1 reads in part, "To determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference upon an appeal of the majority of the Council of Bishops, or one fifth of the members of the General Conference; . . ." Other sections of this Paragraph deal with other powers and duties of the Judicial Council and section 5 reads, "To have such other duties and powers as may be conferred upon it by the General Conference."

In Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline the General Conference conferred other duties and powers, "When the General Conference shall have passed any act or legislation that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or when any paragraph or paragraphs seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, . . . (certain authorities in the Church affected thereby) . . . may petition the Judicial Council for a ruling in the nature of a declaratory decision as to the meaning, application, and effect of such act, legislation, or paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline; and the Decision of the Judicial Council thereon shall be as binding and effectual as a decision on appeal under the law relating to appeals to the Judicial Council."

Decision No. 37 of the Judicial Council on May 9, 1946, refused jurisdiction in the case of a request from an Annual Conference for a declaratory decision on the question of the constitutionality of an act of the General Conference. It refused to take jurisdiction on two grounds, first, that it had no authority to do so under Paragraph 43, section 1, of the Constitution and, second, that it had no authority to do so under General Conference legislation, stating that "Neither is there any authority in Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline for Declaratory Decisions in response to appeals from Annual Conferences."

It was the judgment of the Judicial Council that the Annual Conference was not included in those authorities noted in Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline which would have the right to petition the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision. It would seem a logical inference that if in the judgment of the Judicial Council the Annual Conference had been included in those authorities noted in Paragraph 914 of the 1944 Discipline, the Judicial Council could have taken jurisdiction in the matter then before it.

The General Conference in 1952 opened the door which the Judicial Council had declared in its Decision No. 37 to be closed. It passed legislation amending Paragraph 914 by specifying those bodies within The Methodist Church which had the right to petition the Judicial Council for declaratory decisions and section 8 of Paragraph 914 of the 1952 Discipline included among such bodies, "Any Annual Conference on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein."

Certainly the Annual Conference has no authority to survey the acts and legislation of the General Conference with the purpose simply of raising constitutional questions. However, "on matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein" the General Conference in Paragraph 914 of the Discipline has granted the Annual Conference the right to petition the Judicial Council for relief concerning any act or legislation of the General Conference that appears to be subject to more than one interpretation, or concerning any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline which seem to be of doubtful meaning or application, and has authorized the Judicial Council to take jurisdiction even though in the granting of such relief in the nature of a declaratory decision concerning the meaning, application and effect of such act or legislation, paragraph or paragraphs, the Judicial Council must deal with questions of constitutionality.

When Paragraph 914 of the Discipline speaks of "any paragraph or paragraphs of the Discipline which seem to be of doubtful meaning or application" it does not distinguish between paragraphs of General Conference legislation and paragraphs of the constitution, nor does it exempt paragraphs of the constitution from consideration in the declaratory decisions permitted. Surely when a paragraph of General Conference legilslation seems to be in conflict with a paragraph of the constitution the former "seems to be of doubtful meaning or application" and no declaratory decision can determine its "meaning, application, and effect" without interpreting it in terms of constitutional provisions, or, when the nature of the conflict requires it, dealing with the question of its constitutionality.

Since 1952 the Judicial Council has taken jurisdiction in many petitions from Annual Conferences for declaratory decisions. Always, before taking jurisdiction, the Judicial Council carefully determines whether or not the petition is concerned with "matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein." This provides a severe limitation on the rights of Annual Conferences to petition the Judicial Council for declaratory decisions. If, in addition to this, the Judicial Council be also required, before taking jurisdiction, to determine whether or not any question of constitutionality is involved, then the Judicial Council becomes involved in intricate arguments concerning its authority to take jurisdiction and the Annual Conference is denied what seems to be the clear intent of the General Conference in Paragraph 914 of the Discipline, namely, the right of direct petition to the Judicial Council for relief concerning any provision of the Discipline which "appears to be subject to more than one interpretation" or which seems "to be of doubtful meaning or application" and which seriously affects "Annual Conferences or the work therein."

Ralph M. Houston

Dissenting Opinion

The majority say they take jurisdiction of the question submitted by the North-East Ohio Annual Conference for a declaratory decision under Paragraph 914 (8). The basic question is clearly the constitutionality of the 1956 General Conference legislation pursuant to which the Annual Conference acted. Believing that we do not have jurisdiction to make such a determination for the reasons expressed in the Dissenting Opinion in Decision Number 134, I respectfully dissent from this decision for those same reasons.

In view of the Concurring Opinion in this Decision I feel I must add to my previous reasons that the word "Discipline" alone as used in Paragraph 914 should not be construed as including the Constitution especially when the latter is separately entitled in the Discipline, has been adopted and is amended in such a different manner than General Conference legislation, and generally in the Church is thought of as separate.

Further "matters relating to Annual Conferences or the work therein" isn't much of a limitation on our jurisdiction to consider petitions for declaratory decisions from Annual Conferences as most legislation enacted by the General Conference will affect Annual Conferences.

Donald A. Odell concurs in this Dissent.

Ivan Lee Holt, Jr.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the man was received into full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Boldface type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Office, 740 Rush St., Chicago 11, Ill.
